

Al-Maktoum College of Higher Education

TEACHING FELLOW

IN HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AND LAW

Full-Time, (Fixed Term, 2 years)

Salary range: £26,677- £31,787 per annum

Al-Maktoum College is a private higher and further education college founded in 2001 in Dundee, Scotland. The College works to provide high quality and impactful teaching and research in a range of areas. The College also aims to bridge the possible gap between the Muslim and western worlds by focusing on intelligent debate and scientific understanding of Islam and the role of Muslims in the contemporary world. The College has collaboration arrangements with several institutions including the University of Dundee, Abertay University and Trinity College Dublin offering a range of taught and research postgraduate programmes in a range of areas such as Islamic Finance, Sustainable Development, Organisational Learning, Law and Sustainability and Middle Eastern Studies. In addition, the College has widened its scope as a Scottish Qualifications Authority (SQA) Centre delivering a range of customised awards and Higher National qualifications.

Applications are invited for the position of Teaching Fellow in Human Resource Management and Law.

Candidates should have a master's degree or professional qualification in a relevant subject, together with significant teaching experience in relevant subjects at HE level. The person appointed will be expected to engage in high quality research and teaching on the range of programmes offered by the College.

Candidates should have the ability to advance their own research area, the flexibility to collaborate with colleagues and the ability to work well in a team. They should have excellent communication and presentation skills and the ability to teach at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels in relevant subjects within HRM & Law (especially HRM: Introduction to Finance, Employment Relations: Law & Practice, Environmental Law, Business, and Management and Leadership).

This full-time (36.25 hour) post is offered on a 2-year Fixed Term contract and is available from September 2022.

The successful candidate will be required to participate in administrative duties relating to various aspects of the work of the College as assigned by the Head of College, including the effective delivery of the College's quality assurance systems and other related activities, and the promotion of the College's programmes and activities. The successful candidate will also be expected to contribute to the delivery of Community Education classes and be at all times an excellent ambassador for the College.

Closing Date for applications is Monday 16th May 2022 and interviews will take place during May/June 2022.
